

ECONOMIC UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE

2015 Academic Program

Objectives

To educate professionals to be able to apply analytic tools from economic theory, politics economy and quantitative methods while studying economic affairs, to implementation and evaluation of programs that will solve economic problems of diverse areas, like enterprise economy, finance economy, regional and sustainable development economy, responsibility, professional ethics and humanism.

REQUIREMENTS

Disposition for managing estadistic information

Interest in actual social and economic environment, national and international.

Disposition for team work

FIELDS OF ACTION

Public Federal Sector, municipal and state-owned

Private Sector (financial and business)

No gubernamental organizations

Civil associations

Economic Advice

Consultancy

ACADEMIC PLAN

FIRST SEMESTER

Introduction to economic science

Classic Economic Thinking

Oral and written expression

Basic Mathematics

Basic IT

SECOND SEMESTER

Microeconomics

Macroeconomics

Contemporary economic thinking

Basic Marketing

Administration

Diferential and Integral Calculus

THIRD SEMESTER

Market Structures

Open Macroeconomic Model

Contemporary Capitalism Economics

Economics Law
Linear Algebra
Probability and Statistics

FOURTH SEMESTER

Advanced Microeconomics
Macroeconomics politics and Models of growth
World Economic History
Basic Finance
Differential Equations
Statistics Methods

FIFTH SEMESTER

International Trade Theory
Monetary Economy
Models of Economic Description
Basic Econometric Methods
Politics Economy
Professional Ethics

SIXTH SEMESTER

International Economic Relations
Development Economics
Advanced Econometric Methods
Research Methodology
Strategic Economic Behavior
Multivariate Analysis

SEVENTH SEMESTER

Financial Sector Economics
Regional and Urban Economics
Environmental Economics
Economic Research
Investment Projects Evaluation
Public Policy
Elective Subject I

EIGHTH SEMESTER

Economic Planning
Coordination and Political Economy
Public Sector Economy
Contemporary Economics Seminar
Elective Subject II

Information
Economics Department
Economic and Administrative Sciences Center

Study program approved by H. Consejo Universitario on February 26th, 2015.
National Accreditation CIEES
International Accreditation ACBSP